

Kids Voting Arizona General Election

Nov. 2nd, 2010

HOME SCHOOL VOTING INSTRUCTIONS

---

Preparing kids to be active and engaged citizens is crucial to sustain our democratic republic. For over twenty years, Kids Voting has provided opportunities for Arizona kids to experience the power of casting a ballot. In this 2010 General Election, Kids Voting Arizona is providing the opportunity for your home-schooled child to participate in the election. In addition, Kids Voting Arizona will provide you with fun activities that will “make voting a family affair.”

When kids vote, democracy wins! Get started today...

1. Check out www.KidsVotingAZ.org for free curriculum resources! Contact KVAZ if you need tips for implementing the curriculum in your classroom.
2. By Oct. 22nd, submit a Sticker Request Form on the second page of this form or at www.KidsVotingAZ.org/teachers.cfm
3. In September, you may download Voter ID Cards for your students from www.KidsVotingAZ.org/teachers.cfm
4. An online voting option is available for your home-schooled student.
  - i. Online: Students can use our online tool to vote by visiting www.KidsVotingAZ.org/teachers.cfm
  - ii. Early Voting: Students will be able to vote early (just like adults!) beginning October 7th, 2010.
5. Results of the election will be shared with your campus and Arizona media.
